Pronouns stand in place of a noun. There are 9 kinds of pronouns:

1. Personal pronouns: I, thou, he, she, it, we, you, they

2. Demonstrative pronouns: this, that

3. Possessive pronouns: mine, thine, his, hers, its, ours, yours, theirs

5. Indefinite pronouns: someone, anyone, something, someone, some

6. Reflexive pronouns: myself, yourself, himself, herself, ourselves, yourselves, themselves

7. Emphasising pronouns: myself, yourself, himself, herself, ourselves, yourselves, themselves

8. Reciprocal pronoun: one another

9. Relative pronouns: who, whom, whose, which, that.

Relative pronouns are used to connect a subordinate clause to the main clause in a sentence.

eg. I saw the man who won the prize.
    The man whom you seek went that-a-way.
